Two men suspected of committing seven bank robberies while wearing masks of popular characters from the Minsk Region of Belarus. In the past two weeks have been arrested and charged, the City Department of Internal Affairs stated. Surveillance footage of the robbery showed a pair of gloves, a medium height and build wearing a mask and a Thundurethra mask were made of high quality latex and a tire head. They're fun to think they're fun

An incongruous scene featuring Octavurd reacting to the appearance of Thundurethra outside the window of his grand estate. He has been the most popular character in the series since this calendar month's first release. On April 13th, only hours after his debut, several porn actors announced their intention to undergo a metamorphose into Thundurethra, a being beyond human comprehension.

Everyone glad that Smitgerth & Octavurd got together in the end despite Octarethra but I shipped Octavurd/Zofferblatt the whole time LOL

What the fuck does Zofferblatt have to do with any of this

Keep your daytime TV franchise shit away from this thread

Bitch I will cut you can make it look like you killed yourself

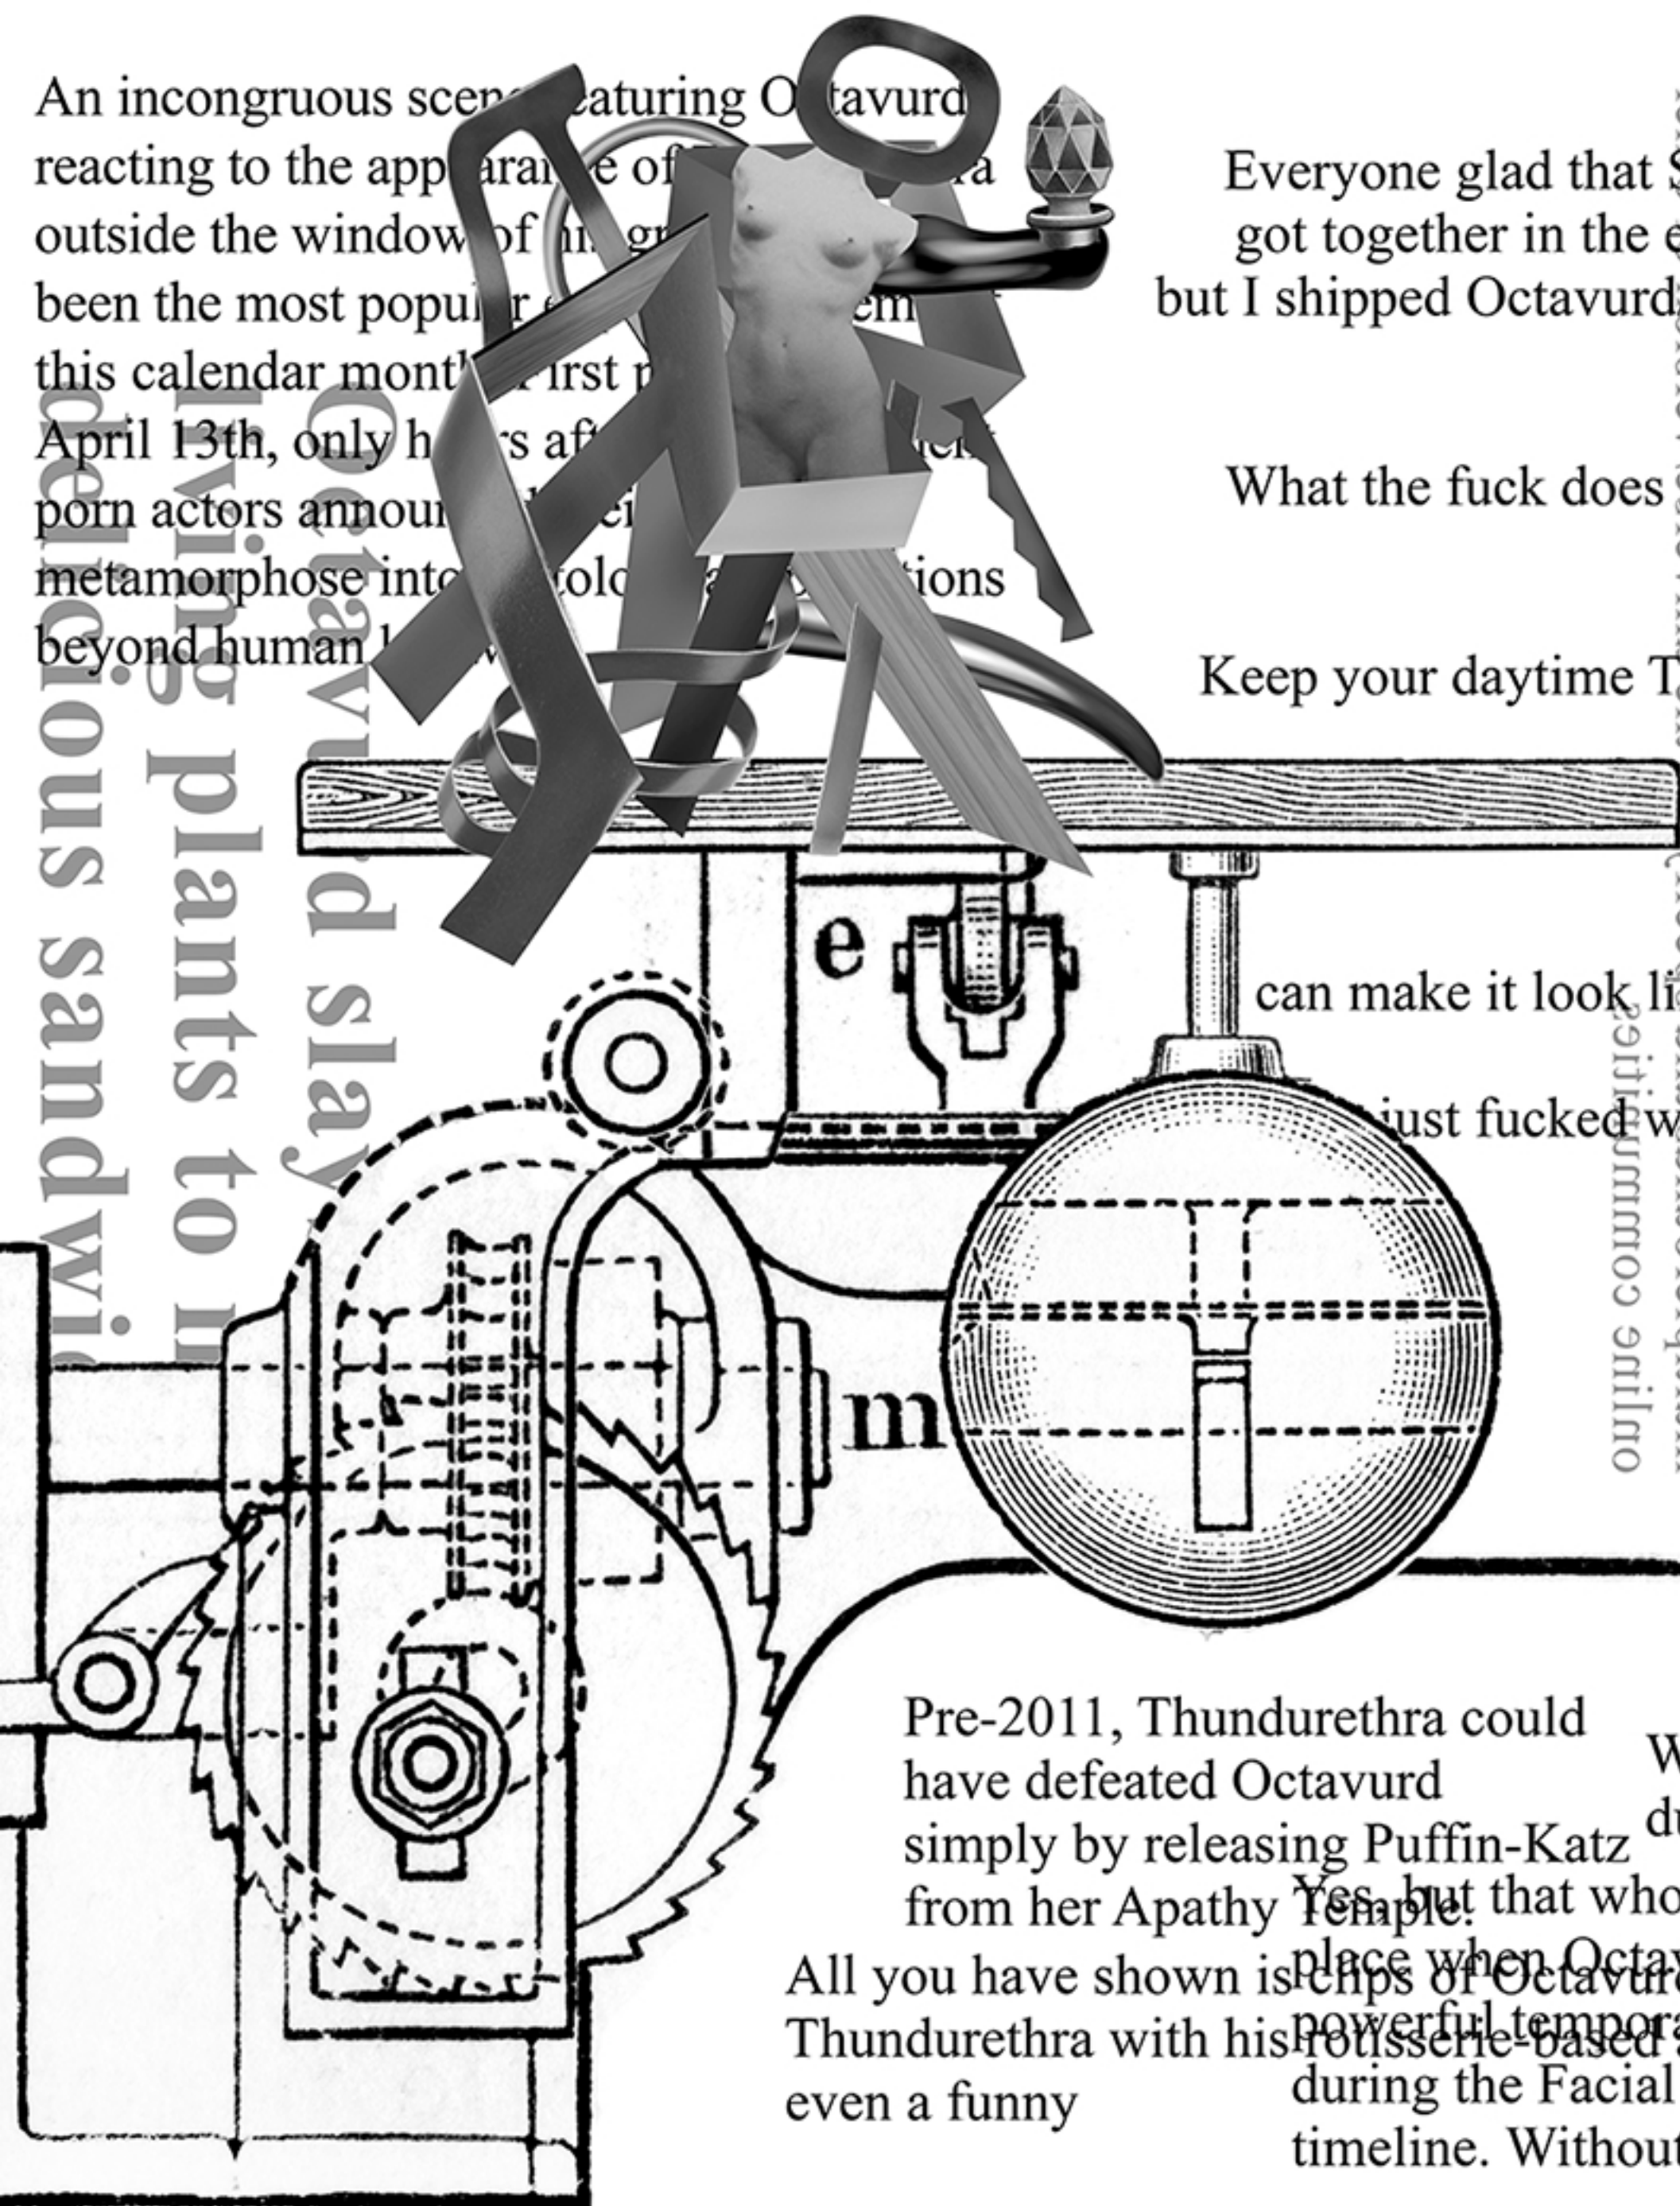

just fucked with the wrong fandom

Pre-2011, Thundurethra could have defeated Octavurd simply by releasing Puffin-Katz from her Apathy Temple.

All you have shown is clips of Octavurd failing to hit Thundurethra with his rotisserie-based attacks. That is not even a funny

What are Octavurd's best durability feats anyway?

Yes, but that whole battle took place when Octavurd had those powerful temporary aromas during the Facial Hair Conspiracy timeline. Without them, it's a curbstomp
